CINCINNATI, April 18, 1859.
Having a desire, if possible, to benefit the afflicted,
I append the following certificate:
About the 1st of last Angust I was taken with a dry, hacking cough, which kept growing worse until about the middle of last January, such a violent cough set in all at once that it seemed at every moment it would rack me almost to pieces. I had tried various remedies, but without any durable relief; there did not seem to be any action in my bowels, and my liver was torpid also. I and my friends had given up all-bones of my recovery; and one in particular, who had two senside of quick consumption, said that I was following them specifly. Al length, being reduces to a very low state of health, I was induced to try. Professor Willcox's Electropathic treatment, and, strange to say, to my great loy and satisfaction
I experienced relief from the first application. My cough loosened, and I began to throw up masses of thick, foamy mucus; my appetite was a great deal better; my bowels and liver were aroused to healthy action; I was considered cursed. I gained in fleeb about two pounds per week. It is nown little over a month since I received the last treatment, and sufficient time has elapsed to grow that the curse is permanent.

FIRST-Prayer, by Bro. W.P. STRATTON SECOND-Anthem, by the Order. The Ladies are requested to join in singing the Ode.

Anthem for the I. O. O. F. Celebration

BY W. W. FOSDICK. Tune-Greenville. Come, ye brethren, all united,
Join your volces as one band,
Let our Love and Friendship plighted,
Ring this day throughout the land;
Praising God, who watches o'er us,
Day and night, by abors or sea,
Make a joyous hearty chorus,
Through our land so blest and free,

Friendship's star is o'er us blazing, Links of Love our bearts units. On that star of beauty gazing We will brave the darkest night; Hand in hand with one another, Though the storms of wee should roar, Brother's grass shall join with brother, Ever, and frover more.

Broad as light our ranks are spreading, Led by Truth and cheered by Love, And our footsteps all are treading On the march to home above; Where our brothers marched before us, Up the path of light they trod, Where we yet shall join their chorus, Biessed before the throne of God.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE ORDER OF ODDFELLOWS.

Forty years ago to-day, there gathered together, in the city of Baltimore, by advertisement, five persons, claiming to be Oddfellows, who then and there instituted themselves a Lodge, and took the name of Washington, as a befitting name to start the Order in America. The names of the brothers here met, were James Duncan, John Welch, John Cheathem, Richard Rushworth and Thomas Wildey.

In 1820 the Lodge received a charter constituting it the Grand Lodge of Maryland. From this point the order has extended to every State and Territory of the United States-to Canada, the Lower Provinces, and the Polynesian Isles. Forty years ago there were five members-now there are 200,000!

THE DIFFERENT LODGES OF THE two cities will celebrate the Fortieth Anniversary of Oddfellowship, on TUESDAY, with inst., by a PROCESSION through the principal streets during the day, and ORATIONS in the different Halls in the evening. Rev. SAMUEL I. ADAMS, of Lexington, Ky. will deliver the Oration in Covington, and Col. TROMAS I. JONES in Newport.

The members will meet at their respective Halls at 5% o clock. A. M., and proceed to the lower end of Madison street, where the Procession will be formed at 10 o clock, displaying asstwanior, whom the line of march, as laid down, will be paraded:

East on Madison street to Columbia, south on Columbia to Jefferson, east on Jefferson to York, south on York to Ringgold, east on Ringgold to Monmouth, north on Monmouth to Mayo, east on Mayo to Saratoga, north on Saratoga to Jefferson, west on Jefferson to Monmouth, north on Monmouth to Front, west on Front to York, south on York to Belview, west on Belview to Covington and Newport Bridge, across the Bridge to Covington, west on Front to Greenup, south on Garrard to Front, west on Front to Greenup, south on Garrard to Front, west on Front to Greenup, south on Garrard to Front, west on Front to Greenup, south on Madison to Eleventh, west on Eleventh to Bands. E. REES,

By order,

Grand Marshal from Covington. In 1830, on the 28th of December, the first gathering of Oddfellows was held in this city, and Ohio Lodge, No. 1, was formed. Samuel Cobb, Wm. Cameron, Samuel Peel and Charles Thomas, we understand, are all that still live in the city, who were there gathered. Cincinnati now has twenty-three Lodges, and Ohio reported, at its last annual Report, 22,119 members.

Since the introduction of Oddfellowship into America, it has undergone many very important changes. The Covenant and Remembrance Degrees have been added. The Encampment branch has been erected to a separate jurisdiction, and its whole work remodeled. The convivial and hilarious character which it brought with it from England, has been displaced, and the care for the widow and the education of the orphan substituted. Instead of the promiscuous song and story, the care of the sick and burial of the dead are now the subjects inquired for and attended to. The beautiful Degree of the Daughter of Rebekah has lastly been added as a sort of crowning grace to the order.

To-day the united order join throughout the American jurisdiction in praise and thanksgiving to that "Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the Universe," whom to acknowledge is the requirement of every man before he can become an Oddfellow.

to be received until the 22d of May. Isaiah Rogers, the County Architect, was requested to furnish plans, specifications and estimates for building a new County Infirmary on the Infirmary farm, near Carthage. Also to furnish working plans and specifications for a new jail, to be used as reference plans by the Board.

A petition was received from 213 citizens of Columbia Township, requesting the Commissioners to change the election district, which was laid on the table.

POLICE COURT .- Yesterday morning there were about fifty cases before Judge Lowe, most of them charged with drunkenness, disorderly conduct, resisting officers, etc.

The foreman of a furniture manufactory, named Heinrich Zouck, was fined $10 and costs for striking a workman under his control, named George Haupt, over the head with a piece of iron.

Sophia Irwin, the unfortunate woman who short time ago was almost killed at a bagnio on Gano street, by another of the frail inmates of the house, was fined $3 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Four young men-George Buckly, Lyman Robb, John Day and Ed. Crouthy-were fined each $10 and costs, and sentenced to the City Prison for ten days, for having been engaged in a row on Walnut street, during which they ejected a bar-keeper from his establishment and used, as they wished, its contents.

A NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH TO BE BUILT .-At last Sunday morning's services at St. Xavier's church, Father Driscoll stated that the building in which the congregation then worshiped was capable of scating but about onethird of the people who desired to attend, and they had therefore concluded to pull it down and erect a new and more commodious edifice upon the site, at a cost of about $100,000. The work will be commenced on the first of May, and the building will front both upon Syeamore and Seventh streets, being built in the form of an L. A contribution was then taken up and quite a large amount of money subscribed, hence the progress of the enterprise will be under no delay for the want of funds.

ADVERTISING - "WANTED." - The Dayton Empire remarks upon the "Wants" column of a neighboring print: "It is a good idea; and we believe it will become a popular mode of communication between the people-just as soon as they can be convinced that it will pay. It is cheap enough to induce anybody to try Its virtues."

THE taxable property of Hamilton County is estimated at $121,000,000. Property owned by the county, including the new Lunatic Asylum, and well-knewn turisman, are also in attendance amounts to $1,304,000. The indebtedness of the county is $290,000, showing a balance in her favor of $1,014,000.

The lecture of Gavazzi at Galway, Ireland, led to a general mob, which resulted in the flight of the Reverend gentleman to another locality. Several Protestant clergymon were also "roughly handled."

At Brooklyn, N. Y., a large brick-built gransry, of four stories, the first floor of which was supported by pillars, fell with a terrific crash, a few days since. Cause: foundation of the pillars eaten away by rats. Loss $10,000.

The comparative populousness of the three great Western cities is illustrated by the vote cast in each at the last spring elections, as follows: Cincinnati, 19,504; St. Louis, 17,268; Chiana, 18,231. Chicago, 16,331. A cotemporary says truly: You may insert a thousand excellent things in a newspaper and never hear a word of approbation from the readers, but just let a paragraph slip in (by accident) of one or two lines not suited to their tastes, and you will be sure to hear of it.

It is reported that Mr. Kimball, eldest son of Heber C., and Jos. Young, son of Brigham, have apostatized, and are about leaving for the States with their first wives, leaving their "spirituals" behind. At least 5,000 apostate Mormons will leave for California early in the spring. They must have some women of stamina in Massachusetts. A short time ago, Miss Elenore Rosebooks wheeled a barrel of flour from her father's store to her minister's house. Her father, who is a bitter infidel, gave the flour to the minister on condition that she should wheel it to him. Soon after a pseudo policeman came in and arrested the broker. The broker purchased immunity by paying the policeman $800 in bills. When peace was thus so dearly bought, our hero re-examined his dust, and found it to be not sold, but conpar filings.

Isaac H. Van Cleef, twenty-seven years old the son of highly respectable parents, took a dose of morphine on Tuesday; but being apprehensive that the dose would prove inoperative he laid himself down on the track of the Hud son River Railroad, New York. Our new Postmaster-General is trying bis hand in the way of improving the arrange-ments of his predecessor. Among the very wise and business-like alterations recently in-troduced we may refer to that one (already noted) by which mail matter takes thirty-six hours in reaching Louisville, and another which causes our Wheeling and other exchanges to occupy nearly as much more time as before in coming to us. Another "improve-ment" is indicated by the following, from the Dunkirk Journal:

THUNDER RAISING DEAD BODIES .- We from the Louisville Courier. The body of Mi chael Murnam, who was drowned by backing his cart too far into the river, on the first of January last, was found on Friday. The body is supposed to have been brought to the surface by the concussion of thunder. This is the second body that has been taken from the river this week, and both of them had been submerged for two or three months.

BOGUS THREE-CENT PIECES .- The counter feiters, for want of bigger game, have put in circulation a lot of bogus thres-cent pieces, which have no milled edge; the stars surrounding the letter C are very indistinctly out; the bunch of arrows tied together in the lower bow and the clive branching in the upper bow of the C are wanting in the bogue coin. On the reverse side of the coin the star is very badly executed, the points being almost rounded, instead of being distinctly and finely cut, as in the genuine.

MEMPHIS RACES .- The Avalanche says that, among the other stock already here in train for the approaching Spring Meeting of the Memphis Jocksy Club, we notice the arrival of our friend James Jackson, who brings to the grounds his well-known horses, "Socks," "Hempland," "Dallas" and "Chamois." Col. John Campbell, of Baltimore, has also arrived, and has upon the grounds the celebrated "Lizzie McDonald," together with "Laura Spillman," and a colt of the Wagner stock. The stables of G. W.
